PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of the Universe, grant, we pray, that the whole creation, set free from slavery, may render your majesty service and ceaselessly proclaim your praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Collect of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

MESSAGE SERIES

AVAILABLE
Let God Work Through You
Transformed by the Eucharist. Sent to change the world.

This 4-week series invites us to consider what God can accomplish when we make our lives available to him. Through the transforming power of the Eucharist, we discover that Jesus does not simply want an hour of our time on Sunday; he wants our hearts, our gifts, and our entire lives. We will explore how becoming available to God leads us to worship him, grow as disciples, build Christian community, serve others, and share the Gospel. Because Christ has given himself to us, we give ourselves to him and to others.

Week Four: Let God Work Through You
Scripture: Matthew 25:31-46

Today we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. And it raises a very important question for each of us: If Jesus is truly the King of my life, what does that actually look like? We live in a world that is constantly telling us what matters. Money matters. Success matters. Security matters. Having enough for ourselves and our families matters. And certainly, those things have a place in our lives. But today, the Church reminds us that there is something—and someone—who matters more than anything else. Jesus Christ is King. And the question isn't simply whether we believe that. The question is whether we actually live as though it's true.

33 Day Consecration to Jesus in the Eucharist

Join us, beginning Monday, November 23, on our 33 Day Consecration to Jesus in the Eucharist. If you don't have a copy of 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory you can pick one up in church, or get six free copies of the book (just pay shipping!) by gong to: https://www.theeucharist.org/33-days-to-eucharistic-glory-six-pack/33PE-6PK.html. There is one hopeful truth that can outweigh all the people and experiences that try to steal our hope each day—our belief in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist! This is that one hopeful truth. Those who believe don't leave. This single truth holds the power to change everything and to re-energize our Catholic Church. Join us for this life-changing spiritual pilgrimage!

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

We'll be joining our brothers and sisters in Christ to give thanks to God this Thanksgiving and to pray together. Please attend our Shadyside and Bellaire ecumenical Thanksgiving services this week!

The Shadyside Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service this Sunday, November 22 at 4:00pm at the Shadyside Church of Christ, 3821 Leona Ave.

The Bellaire Thanksgiving Eve Service will be Wednesday November 25 at 7:00pm at Faith Fellowship Church, 3450 Belmont St, Bellaire.

Our Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be at 9:00am at St. Mary's.

YOUTH GROUP FRIENDSGIVING

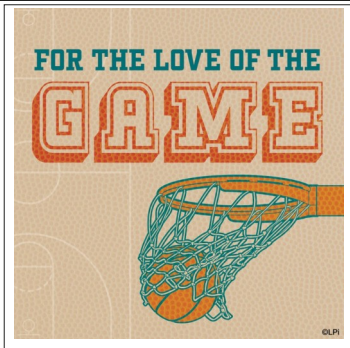
All youth, grades 7-12, and their friends, are invited to our Friendsgiving Feast this Sunday, November 22nd, in St. Mary's Church basement, 5:00pm-6:30pm. Bring a friend and a covered dish (if you are able...if not, come anyway!) Come and join in the fun playing Bible Bingo!

REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Rose Clark, Joseph Wheeler, and Mildred (Millie) Tate. We offer our prayers also for the comfort of their loved ones. If you have a family member that dies but was not buried from our parishes please call the parish office, we would like to include them here in this space.

HELPING HOLIDAYS FOOD DRIVE

The Helping Holidays organization is holding a Food Drive to provide 25 Thanksgiving Dinners and 25 Christmas Dinners to deserving families in the Ohio Valley. Donation box in the entrance of St. John's Church this weekend or a monetary donation (cash or check made out the Helping Holidays), in the Collection basket. Thank you in advance for your generosity!



GOSPEL MEDITATION

I remember middle school baseball tryouts. A friend of mine, Robert, was trying to make the team to please his father, but his heart wasn't in it. He was lackadaisical and unenergetic. When the final cut-list was announced, and his name wasn't on it, he was relieved. He realized the coach was not insulting him but essentially telling him, "Bobby, this only works if you actually want to play ball." I was saddened he'd miss out on the fun, but I knew it was best. Putting Robert onto the team would not have been kindness. It would have made him miserable.

Jesus speaks to us today about his identity as our King and Judge. He separates those who inherit the kingdom from those who do not. The King explains, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). His judgment hinges on willingness to participate in love. Heaven is not a prize imposed at the end of life. It is a life freely chosen and engaged. Hell is not a destination prepared for human beings, but a terrible and sad acknowledgment of an opting out which God never intends for us.

Jesus' role as judge proclaims to us: "Heaven only works if you actually want to love." How do we know if we want it? How we serve the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned, and the forgotten. These acts of mercy are not arbitrary tests. They are the very shape of divine life. There is no better game to play than this. We ought to begin playing it right now. The King will come to judge us. — Father John Muir ©LPi
