11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’ Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give.” - Mt 10:6-8

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

O God, strength of those who hope in you, graciously hear our pleas, and, since without you mortal frailty can do nothing, grant us always the help of your grace that in following your commands we may please you by our resolve and our deeds. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading God reveals to Moses His intention to make Israel a

“treasured possession among all the peoples...a kingdom of priests, a holy nation.” Have you ever received an incredible gift you never saw coming?

2nd Reading Paul teaches us that as believers, we have been reconciled to God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Can you think of a time when you reconciled with a friend or family member?

Gospel Reading Jesus commissioned his 12 Apostles to carry on his missionary work of healing the sick and exorcising unclean spirits. Do you have a sense of mission for your life? ©LPI

St. John's Festival

In spite of the weather (we did have a few hours of sunshine!) the return of our festival last Saturday was a great success—do to the hard work and generosity of you—the team, volunteers, generous benefactors, and everyone who pitched in! We can do great things when we pull together—thank you for your generous response and hard work—we'll look forward to growing our festival next year.

Loop Fest Volunteers Needed

We look forward to having a presence at the Shadyside Loop Fest next Friday and Saturday, 6:00pm-10:00pm selling our Lemon Shakes! We need volunteers and we only have a week so please sign up to help this weekend! It's so important to support our community and be involved in what is happening, please get involved!

Priests Retreat This Week

I will be away this week no retreat with some of the priests from our Diocese. Unfortunately there is no priest available to cover the daily masses Tuesday through Friday, so you'll have to attend mass at one of the neighboring parishes. Check the bulletin boards in church for a list of daily mass times in our area.

Eucharistic Procession

A big "thank you" to our Knights of Columbus council and 4th Degree Assembly, our First Communicants, and all those who came out to participate in our first Corpus Christi Eucharistic Procession in Bellaire last Sunday. The Eucharist is such an amazing gift and we want everyone in our community to know about it so that they can come and experience it too! Next year we'll have one in Shadyside after the 11:00am Mass.

Father's Day Novena of Masses

Grab a card (if you need one) and turn in your envelopes by June 19th so we can pray for our dads, living and deceased! You can find Father's day envelopes in your regular offertory packet. Write the names of your fathers and mark "living" or "deceased." We will remember them in nine masses offered for "Fathers Day Intentions."

Holy Hour for Life With Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our Knights of Columbus Council #1246 will be gathering the parish to pray to Our Lady of Guadalupe for the cause of Life on Wednesday, June 24th at 6:30pm, St. John's Church.

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A few years ago, I met a woman in my parish who was a successful lawyer. Yet in her free time, she poured her energy into a nonprofit she founded to advocate for children with special needs. When I asked what inspired her, she spoke of her niece, who was born with disabilities. Her niece was both a glorious gift and a constant challenge. Out of that painful, beautiful experience, she felt called to create something lasting for other children and parents. The nonprofit thrived, not because she had mapped it all out, but because she was deeply moved to act.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is "moved with compassion" for the crowd, for they were "like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36) So he calls his disciples, ordinary men with no special qualifications, and sends them to heal, preach, and cast out demons. Their mission flows not from their skills but from his authority and the Spirit's gifts.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Spirit continually pours out charisms, special graces for the good of the Church and the world (cf. Lumen Gentium 4 & 12). These often arise from the unfolding of our lives: from what breaks your heart, what fills you with hope, what suffering has shaped you. The Spirit works through those very experiences to equip us with gifts that build up others.

What is your charism? Well, what needs around you call you to loving action? This could be where Christ is sending you. Allow your heart to be moved like Christ's. Then get to work.

Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist

This visually stunning film takes viewers on a global journey to uncover the transformative power of the Eucharist. Engaging in profound dialogue with prominent Catholic leaders, the film explores the biblical origins of the Eucharist and shares powerful personal stories of lives transformed by the Blessed Sacrament.

How to Grow in Eucharistic Devotion (Even When You're Busy)

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life—but how do we actually grow in devotion to it in the middle of everyday life? In this episode of Practicing Catholic, Taylor Kemp and Scott Hefelfinger explore the beauty of the Eucharist and simple, practical ways to deepen your relationship with Christ.

St. Dominic Savio

In this episode, Brother Francis tells the story of St. Dominic Savio, a brave young man who gave his life to God. In a world full of difficulties, his joyful faith and courage shone like a light—proving that even the youngest hearts can achieve greatness.

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS AND THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time/June 21st

First Reading: "Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!" (Jer 20:13)

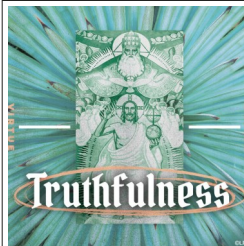

Psalm: Lord, in your great love, answer me. (Ps 69)

Second Reading: But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. (Rom 5:15)

Gospel: "What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops." (Mt 10:27)

Virtues, Explained!

Truthfulness, Explained!

Sin began with a lie.

It was a lie that Satan told Eve in the Garden of Eden, and it was by doubting God's faithfulness — by thinking God to be a liar — that the fall of man came about.

Of course, God Himself is Truth — Adam and Eve discovered that when they believed the lie. Therefore, if we belong to God, we must live truthfully — in small matters and in large ones, so that the witness we bear to the ultimate Truth of God shall always be taken seriously. "Witness is an act of justice that establishes the truth or makes it known," says the Catechism (CCC 2472), which also calls the act of martyrdom "truth written in letters of blood." (CCC 2474)

When Ananias tries to deceive the Christian community and secretly hoard wealth for himself, Peter tells him he has "lied not to human beings, but to God." (Acts 5:4) ©LPi

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Laborers

“The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few.”

This excerpt from Matthew’s Gospel has become a catchphrase in the modern Church. We give ourselves vertigo with the amount of head-shaking we do over the much-lamented “decline in numbers.”

Which numbers, you ask? Well, take your pick — numbers of baptized Catholic children who continue to profess their faith in adulthood, numbers of registered parishioners, numbers of priests ordained each year. All are a fraction of what they were generations ago.

That last one — the priests — that’s a particular worry for us, isn’t it? So we pray, “Send us laborers, Lord! Make them holy. Make them earnest.”

And then we add, in the silence of our hearts: “Make them perfect.”

It’s no secret that part of the reason the pews are empty is because we often find it hard to love the Church if we find it hard to love a particular priest, a particular bishop, or a particular human representative of the Church.

Because that’s the thing about priests and bishops and all the laborers in the field: they are human. They are sinners. Just like you and me.

We must consider this: today’s Gospel lists the Apostles whom Jesus sent out in ministry to heal, console, and evangelize, and right at the end — like a record scratch — comes the name of Judas Iscariot, the betrayer. If ever a laborer failed in his work, it was Judas.

And surely, when he did, his fellow laborers were so demoralized and so disenchanted that they considered laying down their tools and leaving the harvest to wither and die.

But they did not, and we must not.

Without cost we have received, and without cost we are called to give.

So we labor on, for the day is drawing to a close, and the threshing time is near. ©LPi

PRAYER – FOR EVERYDAY AND EVERYBODY*Prayer of Discipleship

Dear Jesus, You’ve called every soul to yourself, aware of our faults and failures, but also our gifts, perspectives, our talents, and our dreams. As we grow to know you, help us to more fully understand ourselves and, in doing so, to use our unique positions to spread your love to the world. Amen. ©LPi

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED Sin

Question: A member of my parish was recently arrested for a white-collar crime. I don’t approve of what he did, but he is a great neighbor and a nice person. How should I treat someone like him?

Answer: There is a litany of expressions that fit this situation: Everyone makes mistakes. Hate the sin, love the sinner. Judge not, lest you be judged. All of these proverbs and sayings highlight the fact that we are here to help each other on the way to salvation. Our hope and goal is that everyone grows in grace, drawing closer to God and to the promise of eternal life. Part of that process is our struggle, collectively and individually, with sin. And that is the ugly part. Sin is not nice, pretty, or inviting when laid out for all to see. Nor is it easy for the person caught in the spotlight.

Kindness and support are not the same thing as approval. We recognize that good people can do bad things and in their struggle, they need the help of others. Our kindness is often the flicker of hope that allows someone to face the consequences of sin while focusing on the promise of redemption. Your desire to help and support your neighbor is the response of grace to sin, and the same response of Jesus to us. ©LPi

Devotions, Explained !*Memorare, Explained

The Memorare is a prayer to the Blessed Mother in which the supplicant calls upon the maternal love and protection of Mary’s intercession in an hour of dire need. “I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother,” reads one section of the prayer, which goes on to beseech “the Mother of the Word Incarnate” to receive these petitions with love and mercy.

St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. Francis de Sales were two great devotees of this prayer.

Popularized in the 17th century by a French priest named Fr. Claude Bernard, the text is derived from an older and longer prayer entitled “Ad sanctitatis tuae pedes, dulcissima Virgo Maria” (“at your holy feet, most sweet Virgin Mary”). The title “Memorare” is taken from the Latin word for “remember,” which begins the prayer. The modern version appears in the 1846 Raccolta, a collection of indulgenced prayers. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Power of a Simple Action

I remember seeing a story on a morning news program about a little girl who wanted to give an elderly man in a grocery store a hug. She had no way of knowing that this man had just lost his wife of many years and now felt so very alone and depressed. Her reaching out to the man seemed odd to her mom at first, but the girl was so insistent about giving a hug she moved the shopping carts close together so the exchange could take place. No one knew that from that moment on the little girl would ask to visit her new friend at least once a week for the next four years until he passed away. In an interview soon after the initial encounter, the man said, "I haven't been this happy in some time." Imagine the joy that relationship brought to them both over the years!

It was just a moment. It was a simple gesture. Yet, it had a large impact that no one could have predicted. You never know what will result when we give just a little of ourselves. That uncertainty too often leads us to hold back or refrain from the simple actions of love or gestures of generosity that could come so easily for us if we wanted. We should never doubt the power of a simple random act of kindness. Generosity does not need to be grand to make a big difference. The time is now, and the opportunity presents itself often to plant a small seed that God can water and nourish so that something beautiful can grow.

– Tracy Earl Welliver ©LPi

On June 19, 1865, the last African-American chattel slaves were freed in the United States, pursuant to General Order No. 3 issued in Texas by Gen. Gordon Granger of the Union Army.

Back then, there was no such thing as an openly Black Catholic priest in the US. On that day, William Augustine Williams, the first openly African-American Catholic seminarian in history, was living in Baltimore, having returned from 8 years of priesthood studies in Rome, rendered null due to virulent racist opposition to his prospective ordination.

On June 19th, 1970, Black seminarians across the United States banded together to form what is now known as the National Black Catholic Seminarians Association. Among their number is the ancestry of slavery, unpaid toil and enduring faith, from which has sprung a wellspring of vocation and purpose.

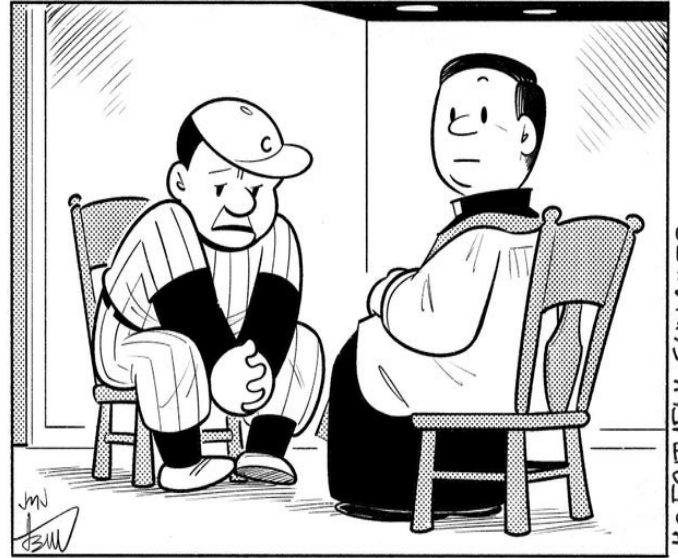

Now, as we celebrate Juneteenth as a national Holiday, "We thank God for the faithful witness, and some cases the ultimate sacrifice, made by all who fought for freedom and emancipation for the enslaved (Archbishop Jose Gomez)."

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

In his mercy, Jesus sent his Apostles into ministry — and the Apostles are still ministering today. We see them in the sanctuary, in the confessional. They are our priests, sent to shepherd Christ's sheep. This week, let's pray for our shepherds. ©LPi
